

Secured Site

This website uses SSL (Secure Sockets Layer) for a secure and encrypted communication with your browser.

This means that all data you send or receive from this website will be transmitted over a secured channel. For the encryption of your data, CineSat websites use the maximum encryption key length currently supported by web servers and browsers (2048 bits).

The SSL certificate has been issued by the recognized web trust company  Comodo Group Inc.

The owner of this site and of the SSL certificate is  GEPARD, J. Scheiber KG.
The following web services are being secured under this domain:

GEPARD Website	 https://www.gepard.at
CineSat Website	 https://www.cinesat.com
CineSat Support Pages:	 https://support.cinesat.com
CineSat MyFiles:	 https://www.cinesat.com/myfiles A secure file exchange tool http links to these sites will be redirected to the secured https services.